Stoked about Commitment

*Jesus is fired up about people who
are committed to putting him first*

People who count the cost (Luke 14:27-28)

- The “cross” is symbolic of hardship related to following Jesus
- To “count the cost” is a very precise consideration of what it means to follow Jesus

People who finish the course (Luke 14:29-30)

- Ridicule - to mock or play with (as would a child)

*Jesus is fired up about people who
are committed to putting him first*

People who pay the price (Luke 14:31-32)

- If our commitment to Jesus does not exceed the sum total of all our other commitments, we cannot be Jesus' disciple.

so why do my commitments
break down?

When I don't count the cost
(Luke 9:57-58)

so why do my commitments
break down?

When I put "me first" and not "Jesus first"
(Luke 9:61-62)
