five unfailing principles for financial success

1. Refuse to allow your net-worth to determine your self-worth (Luke 12:15)
 - “Greed” - literally means to thirst for more
 - ‘More’.... is not always better

2. Recognize the folly of accumulating wealth only for one's self (Luke 12:16-21)
 - It's foolish to hoard wealth for one's self
 - We are rich towards God when we are generous towards others

3. Experience the inability to out-give God
(Luke 12:22-31)

- God knows what we give
- God knows what we need
- Our wallets are a symbol of our faith

4. Invest in returns that will last (Luke 12:32-34)
 - We must never let our 'buying' leave us in a position where we can't give
 - If my wallet is for myself, my heart is not for God

5. The time to give is now (Luke 12:35-40)
 - Our generosity reveals our master
 - Be ready... because before we know it, we will be before the Lord
