

Michael Spears—Intern

I was born in Fort Collins, and have lived here for pretty much my whole life. I graduated from Rocky Mountain High School in 2007, and accepted Jesus as my savior the summer after my senior year.

I am looking to become a pastor, and I will hopefully be attending Colorado Christian University in the spring.